Program outcomes: BA (Bachelor of Arts)

- Understanding in brief the knowledge of human society
- Ability to follow new streams of thoughts and theories of thinkers
- Getting the knowledge of works of social reformers of all over the nation
- Study from competitive examinations point of view
- Understanding the government mechanism, its functions, duties and responsibilities
- Acquaintance with personality
- Emotional development of human mind
- Responsible and dutiful citizen
- Creative ability and imbuing research attitude
- Sense of social service and realisation of human values

Program outcomes: B. Com. (Bachelor of Commerce)

- To acquaint students with financial market and its various segments
- To acquaint students with banking law and practice in relation to the banking system in India
- To impart knowledge regarding costing techniques
- To establish link between Commerce / Business and Marketing
- To develop an analytical ability to plant for various marketing strategies
- To motivate students to make their mind set for taking up entrepreneurship as career
- To develop business communication skills through the application and exercises
- The students can develop the understanding and skills to prepare accounts of cooperate sectors and also the knowledge in current issues in the area of accounting

Program outcomes: B. Sc. (Bachelor of Science)

- Creating interest in environmental issues
- Increasing working knowledge of instruments
- Increasing the practical skill of the students
- Creating awareness about plastic garbage
- Developing problem solving skills
- Developing scientific knowledge
- Developing proper aptitude towards the subject
- Developing ability to acquire the knowledge of terms, facts, concepts, processors, techniques and principles of the subject
- Ability to plan the small-to-mid-size laboratories and industries of their own
- Effectively utilising the knowledge of micro-organisms to develop sustainable solutions to current and environmental problems
- Developing awareness for understanding of on-going issue